DETAILED ACTION

1. The indicated allowability of claims 28-32, 35 and 48-50 is withdrawn in view of the reference to WO0040856. New rejections based on the reference follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 28-32, 35 and 48-50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO0040856.

WO0040856 discloses an atomization system comprising all the featured elements of the instant invention, see Figures 3-5, except for the insulating body being at least partly made of a ceramic material. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have the insulating body being at least partly made of a ceramic material, since it has been held to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select a known material on the basis of its suitability for the intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416. Ceramic material is well known to be a good insulator.

As to claim 31, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide fuel pressures as claimed since such pressure ranges are normal in atomization systems for charging chemical reformers and the apparatus of WO0040856 would be capable of operating at such pressure ranges as claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 37-47 and 51 are allowed.
5. Claims 36, 52 and 53 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Steven J. Ganey whose telephone number is 571-272-4899. The examiner can normally be reached on 9:00-5:00; Monday-Friday.
